

Blackstone Heritage Corridor, Inc. and Blackstone River Valley National Historical Park

A Model in Partnership

Directions

To River Bend Farm in Uxbridge: Take Mass. 146 to exit for Mass. 16. Follow Mass. 16 east to Mass. 122. Take Mass. 122 north and turn right onto Hartford Avenue. Turn right onto Oak Street. The farm is on the left.

To Museum of Work and Culture in Woonsocket: Take R.I. 146 to exit for R.I. 104. Follow R.I. 104 north for two miles. Museum is on right at 42 South Main Street.

To Blackstone River State Park Visitor Center: Take I-295 north. Visitor center is located on I-295 between exits 9 and 10 in Lincoln, R.I.

To Blackstone Valley Visitor Center in Pawtucket: From I-95 north take exit 28. Turn left onto School Street. At first light, go straight through intersection and down the hill. At next light, turn right onto Roosevelt Avenue. Visitor center parking lot is the first left. From I-95 south take exit 29. Bear right onto Fountain Street, then right onto Exchange Street. At light take left onto Roosevelt Avenue. Visitor center is on the right at the end of the block.

- Blackstone River, Blackstone Canal and the Blackstone River Bikeway, all elements in the new Blackstone River Valley National Historical Park
 - Blackstone River Bikeway
 - Lock
 - Information
- Historical resources included in the new Blackstone River Valley National Historical Park:
- Blackstone River State Park
 - Old Slater Mill
 - Slatersville Historic District
 - Ashton Historic District
 - Whitinsville Historic District
 - Hopedale Village Historic District
- Blackstone Heritage Corridor Visitor Centers:
- Pawtucket Visitor Center
 - Kelly House/Blackstone River State Park
 - Museum of Work and Culture
 - River Bend Farm at Blackstone River and Canal Heritage State Park
 - Blackstone Heritage Corridor Visitor Center at Worcester

