BHC volunteers (including VIPs) who are leading a GO! 2018 activity are expected to:

- Obtain written permission from the landowner if my organization does not own the private property where the activity will take place. (Be sure to provide the written permission to BHC before the activity is finalized.)
- Participate in 1 training workshop, normally held in mid-August
- Follow all BHC, Inc. program guidelines.
- Ensure that participants wear properly fitted helmets and other safety gear for all biking, paddling, and horse activities.
- Provide all assistance required, including any necessities to make my GO! Experience successful.
- Wear a GO! Leader t-shirt
- Promptly submit the registration/participation sheets to BHC for our files.

A great deal of advanced marketing will be done for BHC's GO! program and it is essential to deliver all that the published program promises! Therefore, by signing below you understand that, once the submission is confirmed, you cannot cancel or change submission in any way. You also understand the requirements and responsibilities and agree to participate in BHC's GO! 2018.

BHC reserves the right to decline proposals.

By checking this box and signing below, you agree to the conditions listed above.
